

Mahomey, Edwardine G.

Edwardine Mahoney Aug 7 1941

Edwardine Mahoney, well known former Petaluma girl who is employed by the state in San Francisco has enlisted in the WAVES and will leave that city on August 20 for Hunter College for training. A graduate of the Petaluma high school, Miss Mahoney is the daughter of Mrs. Madeline Mahoney, also a former Petaluman, now residing in San Francisco, who was a visitor here today.

Edwardine Mahoney Oct 17-44

Edwardine G. Mahoney, 21, 1350 Sutter street, San Francisco, graduate of Petaluma high school 1941, was enrolled recently in the Naval Training school (radio) at the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, where she is learning fundamentals of radio communication. Her selection to attend the specialty school was made on the results of her recruit training aptitude tests. The completed course of study includes the operation, function and maintenance of radio transmitting equipment, and the sending and receiving of messages in international code.

* * *